O CANADA

O CANADA! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada.
We stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

ODE TO NEWFOUNDLAND

When sun rays crown thy pine clad hills
And Summer spreads her hand
When silvery voices tune thy rills,
We love thee, smiling land,
We love thee, We love thee,
We love thee smiling land.

As loved our fathers, so we love;
Where once they stood, we stand;
Their prayer we raise to Heaven above,
God guard thee, Newfoundland,
God guard thee, God guard thee,
God guard thee, Newfoundland.
ACADEMIC DRESS

The academic dress for matriculated undergraduates of the University shall be similar to the Scholar's Gown of the University of Oxford. It shall be worn whenever the President so directs.

The gowns of Bachelors shall be of black stuff. The gowns of Masters shall be of black stuff or silk. The gowns of Doctors shall be of fine scarlet cloth or silk, or black stuff or silk.

The pattern of the Bachelor's gown shall be similar to that of the Oxford Bachelor's gown. The pattern of the Master's gown and of the Doctor's black gown shall be similar to that of the Oxford Master's gown, except that the Doctor's black gown shall have an edging of black silk braid at the opening of the sleeve. The Doctor's scarlet gown shall be similar to that of the Oxford Doctor of Divinity's gown.

The hoods of Bachelors shall be made of black stuff, the hoods of Masters of black silk, the hoods of Doctors of scarlet silk. They shall be full in shape and lined with the University colours of claret and white. The hoods of Bachelors shall be edged with white fur, the tippets with velvet in the colours distinctive of the Faculty or Degree. The hoods and tippets of Masters shall be edged with velvet in the colours distinctive of the Faculty or Degree. The hoods and tippets of Doctors shall be edged with silk in the colours distinctive of the Faculty or Degree. However, the hood of the Doctor of Philosophy degree shall be of claret silk, lined and edged with claret silk.

The distinctive colours for the various degrees shall be:

- B.A., M.A., D.Litt. .......................................................... White
- B.Mus. ........................................................................ Drab
- B.Com., M.B.A. ............................................................... Royal Blue
- B.A.(Ed.) ....................................................................... Gold
- B.Sc., M.Sc., D.Sc. ............................................................ Light Blue
- B.Ed., M.Ed. ................................................................... Lavender
- B.Mus.Ed. ..................................................................... Sage Green
- B.P.E., M.P.E. ................................................................ Purple
- LL.D. ............................................................................. Coral
- B.N., M.N. ...................................................................... Orange
- B.S.W., M.S.W. ............................................................... Steel Gray
- B.Voc.Ed ......................................................................... Teal Blue
- B.Spec.Ed. ...................................................................... Claret

The caps of men undergraduates, Bachelors and Masters, shall be black and of the square shape, with a black tassel. The caps of Doctors shall be similar to the Oxford Doctor's bonnet. The caps of women undergraduates, Bachelors and Masters, shall be similar to the Oxford women's cap.

The academic dress for Officers of the University shall be as follows:

- Chancellor — a silk gown heavily embroidered with gold braid.
- Vice-Chancellor — a silk gown embroidered with gold braid.
- Pro Vice-Chancellor — a silk gown embroidered with gold braid.
- Registrar and other officers of the University — gowns of a pattern approved by the Senate.
The Academic Procession will enter the Hall on Friday morning at nine o'clock and at eleven o'clock, and at three o'clock in the afternoon. On Saturday morning the Procession will enter at ten-thirty o'clock and at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The audience is requested to stand while the Procession enters and departs from the Hall, during the Anthems, and at other times as noted in the Order of Proceedings.

HONORARY DEGREES
ANGUS ANDREW BRUNEAU

Angus Andrew Bruneau, former vice-president and founding dean of engineering and applied science at Memorial University, is now the president of Bruneau Resources Management Limited of St. John’s. His career as an engineer began in 1958 following his graduation from the University of Toronto, where he studied engineering physics and received a bachelor’s degree.

In 1962 Dr. Bruneau received the Diploma of Imperial College of Science and Technology (DIC) from Imperial College in London, England. In the same year he received a Ph.D. from the University of London.

Upon returning to Canada he joined the Department of Mechanical Engineering at the University of Waterloo, becoming director of general engineering in 1966. In 1967 Dr. Bruneau became the founding dean of Memorial University’s Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, administering various degree programmes and at the same time pursuing his research interests in the fields of ocean engineering and resource development.

From 1974-78 Dr. Bruneau served as vice-president (professional schools and community services) at Memorial, assuming responsibility for the School of Business Administration, the School of Social Work, the Extension Service, the Office of Community Resource Development, the Divisions of Co-ordination and Technical Services, and the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

While at Memorial, he proposed and participated in the establishment of the Newfoundland and Labrador Computer Services Limited (NLCS), the Centre for Cold Ocean Resources Engineering (C-CORE), the Ocean Engineering Research Group, and a research and development agency which later became the Newfoundland Oceans Research and Development Corporation (NORDCO). Dr. Bruneau was also instrumental in the establishment of a satellite receiving station at Shoe Cove and the Arctic Vessel and Marine Research Institute on the campus of Memorial.

Since 1979 he has operated a consulting company, Bruneau Resources Management Ltd. Dr. Bruneau is also a director of a number of companies and is a member of several professional societies. In 1983 he was made an Officer of the Order of Canada.
JAMES WALTER CHURCH

James Walter Church was born in Ottawa in 1916 and worked as an apprentice tool and die maker before entering Queen's University in 1937 to study mechanical engineering. His studies were interrupted by World War II, however, and he undertook various assignments with the British Admiralty and the British Air Ministry before returning to Queen's in 1944.

In 1946 Dr. Church graduated with a B.Sc. and joined a consulting engineering firm for one year before being appointed lecturer at the University of Toronto in 1947. In 1951 he received the M.A.Sc. degree and also lectured at the Ryerson Institute of Technology and the Royal College of Art of Ontario.

From 1952-56 he worked at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology as group leader on advanced applied research and left to become chief engineer and vice-president (engineering and manufacturing) of the Preston Woodworking Machinery Co. Ltd. in Preston, Ontario. In 1962 he joined the University of Waterloo's Department of Design as a lecturer, eventually becoming a full professor.

In 1967 Dr. Church became the founding president of the Conestoga College of Arts and Technology, which grew from a college in name only to a major technical education centre with a faculty and staff of more than 700. In 1974 he resigned because of fatigue and accepted a visiting professorship at Memorial University. One year previous, in 1973, he had been awarded the honorary doctor of laws degree from the University of Waterloo.

In 1975 Dr. Church was appointed professor of design engineering at Memorial, a post he held until 1979, when he became adjunct professor of mechanical engineering at the University of Waterloo. His distinguished career in the engineering field has also led to membership in several professional societies and various patents and copyrights on his designs.
Desmond Thomas McGrath was born in Corner Brook in 1935, to a father who was an accountant with the Bowater company and a mother who became the first public librarian in the city. After completing high school he worked at the paper mill as an apprentice electrician before enrolling at St. Francis Xavier University in Antigonish, Nova Scotia. He graduated from the university in 1957 and began theological training at St. Augustine's in Toronto.

Following his ordination in the Roman Catholic Church in 1961, Father McGrath was appointed as an assistant in the Cathedral Parish of Corner Brook, where he became actively involved in community work with young people. In 1968 he took charge of the Holy Family Parish in Port Saunders, where his involvement in the fishermen's labour movement began.

In April of 1970 Rev. McGrath and a former classmate, Richard Cashin, laid the groundwork for the Northern Fishermen's Union, with about 200 members. In April of 1971, after much planning, the founding convention of the Newfoundland Fishermen, Food and Allied Workers' Union was held and, although he held no office, Rev. McGrath continued to work as an advisor and campaigner for the movement. He has continued in that role ever since, earning the affectionate nickname of "the cod-father".

In recent years Rev. McGrath has been in charge of the Cathedral Parish of Corner Brook, but in 1981 he was granted leave of absence to work full-time with the fishermen's union on a programme of education and organization for inshore fishermen. Rev. McGrath regards his union work as an extension of his religious vocation, fulfilling the Christian attitude of "recognizing the value and dignity of each individual".
JAMES MAVOR MOORE

James Mavor Moore was born in Toronto in 1919 and graduated from the University of Toronto in 1941 with a bachelor of arts degree. Following his graduation he joined the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation as a producer of radio features, but soon after joined the army intelligence service during World War II.

When the war ended, Dr. Moore became producer for the CBC's new International Service and later executive producer for United Nations radio and television in New York. In 1950 he was named Canadian television's first chief producer.

Since that time Dr. Moore has been a governor of the United Nations Association, the Canadian Association of Adult Education, the Stratford Shakespeare Festival, the National Theatre School and the Fathers of Confederation Foundation. He was also the founding director of the Charlottetown Festival and of the St. Lawrence Centre for the Arts. In addition, he has been first chairman of the Canadian Theatre Centre and the Guild of Canadian Playwrights. He also has the distinction of having been the chairman of the Canada Council.

Dr. Moore has been drama critic for the Toronto Telegram and the CBC, as well as the author of more than 100 plays, musicals and opera librettos. Since 1982 he has hosted the weekly CBC arts program Performance, in addition to writing a weekly column for The Globe and Mail. In 1969 he received the honorary doctor of letters degree from York University and in 1982 Mount Allison University conferred the honorary doctor of laws degree. At present Dr. Moore is professor emeritus of York University and adjunct professor of fine arts at the University of Victoria.
GORDON MCKENZIE STIRLING

Gordon McKenzie Stirling was born in St. John's in 1907 and was educated at Bishop Feild College. After reading law he was called to the Bar of Newfoundland in 1930 and was made a Q.C. in 1956. In 1967 he received the Centennial Medal and in 1980 he was made a Member of the Order of Canada.

Mr. Stirling has been the commanding officer of The Church Lads' Brigade in Newfoundland and is now their honorary colonel. He is also commander of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem and a past president of the Newfoundland branch of the St. John Ambulance Association. He is a past president of the Feildian Athletic Grounds Association, former treasurer of the Law Society of Newfoundland, former member of the executive of the Canadian Bar Association, former regent of Memorial University, former chancellor of the Anglican Diocese of Newfoundland, and past member of the National Council for the Duke of Edinburgh Award in Canada. In 1964 he was president of the Governing Bodies of the Legal Profession in Canada.

Mr. Stirling is currently a director of the Canadian Scholarship Trust Foundation and the Grenfell Association of Newfoundland and a member of the advisory board of the Canada Permanent Trust Company.
Bobbie Robertson was born in Scotland, where she lived until emigrating to Canada with her husband in the early 1930's. Upon coming to Newfoundland, she went to work with the Commission of Government and was involved in the land settlement plans in such areas as Markland, Haricot and Lourdes. For a time she was secretary to the Hon. J.H. Gorvin, one of the commissioners.

In 1942 Mrs. Robertson was appointed private secretary to the first Canadian trade commissioner named to Newfoundland and served in that capacity until Confederation. From 1949 until her retirement from public service in 1967 she carried on as the representative of the federal Department of Trade and Commerce in Newfoundland, seeking potential industrial investors for the province.

After her retirement she became office secretary of the Newfoundland Historical Society, where she continues to carry out the aims and objectives of the organization. She received the society's Heritage Award for her devoted work in accumulating a wealth of information regarding Newfoundland history, and for her invaluable assistance to researchers over the years.

GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN EDUCATION

Delores Barbara MCKINLAY ........................................ Kelligrews
Convocation marks the transition from student to graduate. Graduates, collectively and individually, are part of Memorial's history and part of its future as well.

The Memorial University of Newfoundland Alumni Association congratulates all new graduates and welcomes them into the Association as full members. As alumni they form the largest part of the University community. Branches are located in St. John's, Clarenville, Gander, Grand Falls, Corner Brook, Labrador City, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Calgary. There are also branches for the Faculty of Medicine and for the Faculty of Business Administration. Alumni continue to participate in the affairs of the University through six of their number whom they elect to three year terms on the Board of Regents. The publication "Luminus" keeps alumni in touch with the University and with each other.

The Alumni Association through the Alumni Affairs office in the Division of Student Affairs maintains a roster of graduates and former students. Without the aid of every graduate, however, it is impossible to keep the roster current and accurate. Accordingly, each graduate is requested to supply information concerning changes of address and degrees subsequently received at other universities.

Alumni, their families and friends will always be welcome at Memorial University. The University's doors will always be open to those who come back to visit.
