Convocation
May 1991
O CANADA

O CANADA! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O CANADA

O CANADA! Terre de nos aieux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits.

Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

ODE TO NEWFOUNDLAND

When sun rays crown thy pine clad hills
And Summer spreads her hand
When silvern voices tune thy rills,
We love thee, smiling land,
We love thee, we love thee,
We love thee smiling land.

As loved our fathers, so we love;
Where once they stood, we stand;
Their prayer we raise to Heaven above,
God guard thee, Newfoundland,
God guard thee, God guard thee,
God guard thee, Newfoundland.

RICHARD JOSEPH CASHIN

Richard Joseph Cashin is well-known in the province as a lawyer, a politician and a leading figure in the labor movement. Educated at St. Bonaventure’s College, St. Francis Xavier University and Dalhousie University, he was elected member of Parliament for St. John's West from 1962 to 1968, serving as parliamentary secretary to the minister of fisheries during his second term. He practised law in St. John’s until 1970, when he became involved with the labor movement. He played a key role in organizing the workers in the fishing industry, and was instrumental in the formation of the Newfoundland Fishermen, Food and Allied Workers Union in 1971, serving as its first president. For two years he was also secretary-treasurer of the Newfoundland and Labrador Federation of Labor. He was Atlantic commissioner on the Task Force on Canadian Unity, 1977-79, and currently serves as a commissioner of the Citizens’ Forum on Canada’s Future.

MARIO DUSCHENES

Mario Duschenes has been musical director of the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra for the past six years. A flutist, conductor and teacher, he studied at the Geneva Conservatory and toured Europe several times as a soloist with the Ars Antiqua Ensemble before moving to Canada in 1948. He was co-founder of the CAMMSC Music Centre, where he taught for more than 25 years, and of the Baroque Trio of Montreal. He has appeared as guest conductor with orchestras worldwide, and is particularly known for his involvement with youth orchestras and concerts. His services to music have earned him an honorary degree from Concordia University and appointment to the Order of Canada, as well as recognition from the Association of Canadian Orchestras, and the Canadian Council of Music Award for the best educational television program.
JANET ELIZABETH HALLIWELL

Janet Elizabeth Halliwell, named chair of the Science Council of Canada in 1990, is one of Canada's most influential commentators on science policy. Her notable career in science administration, policy and research development includes her key role in directing Natural Sciences and Research Council of Canada funds towards fundamental and applied research in science and engineering in Canadian universities. She developed, implemented and subsequently managed the council's strategic grants program and, as its director-general, supervised $240 million in research funding. She is a member of the board of directors of the Lithoprobe project and of the Institute for Space and Terrestrial Science. She is also a member of the Canadian Council for the Ocean Drilling Program.

SHIRLEY MARIE STINSON

Shirley Marie Stinson is a professor at the University of Alberta in both the Faculty of Nursing and the Department of Health Services, Administration and Community Medicine. She earned a BScN from that university in 1953, her MNA from the University of Minnesota in 1958, and an EdD from Columbia in 1969. She was one of the first nurses to recognize the importance of doctoral preparation for nurses and, under her leadership, the doctoral program at the University of Alberta has become a landmark in Canadian nursing education. Her distinguished career has included teaching undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate students and an impressive record of over 70 scholarly publications. Her professional contributions have had a major impact on policymaking at national and international levels.
ELIZABETH ROSEMARY SUMMERS

Elizabeth Rosemary Summers has been called a visionary leader of Newfoundland nurses. She went from Memorial University College to the Halifax Infirmary where she earned her RN in 1941; she later received a bachelor of nursing from McGill University and a master of nursing from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Her career included service as a nursing sister with the Canadian navy, administrator of nursing services with the Newfoundland department of health and director of nursing at the General Hospital. From 1967 to 1980 she was an instructor and an administrator at Memorial’s School of Nursing. After working to establish the Canadian Nursing Association in Newfoundland, she was elected to serve as the provincial group’s first president. She has also worked with many volunteer groups.

WILLIAM WHITESIDES WARNER

William Whitesides Warner’s achievements span two distinct careers, one as a renowned writer who reached a world audience and one as an officer of the Smithsonian Institution. He graduated cum laude from Princeton University in 1943 with a bachelor’s degree in geology. He won a Pulitzer Prize for his exceptional book, Beautiful Swimmers: Watermen, Crabs and Chesapeake Bay, 1976, a complete natural history of the Atlantic blue crab and a vivid portrayal of the inshore fishermen who depend on crab for their living. More recently he wrote Distant Water: The Fate of the North Atlantic Fisherman. Mr. Warner served as director of the Smithsonian from 1964 to 1972, and in 1973 was named research associate. He received the institution’s highest accolade, the Exceptional Service Award. For the past six years he has been working at the Woodstock Theological Centre, Georgetown, writing a history of Roman Catholics in Washington, D.C.
GLYNDWR WILLIAMS

Glyndwr Williams earned a BA in history from the London School of Economics in 1954 and his doctoral degree from King's College, London, in 1959. He has been professor of history at Queen Mary College, University of London, since 1974. His main teaching interests are in Canadian, maritime and imperial history. During his career he has held visiting appointments at four Canadian universities and has played an important role in the study of Newfoundland history, supervising a number of doctoral theses on Newfoundland topics. He has maintained an active interest in historical research related to Newfoundland, and has many links with Memorial's academic community. He is currently working on a comprehensive atlas of North American exploration from Cabot in the late 15th century to the opening of the Yukon a century ago.
